Penguin Loves Mev In the UK

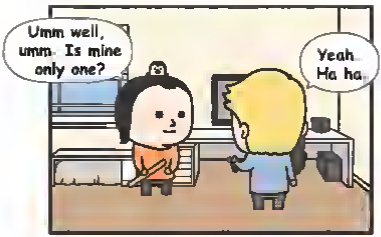
This Year's Present

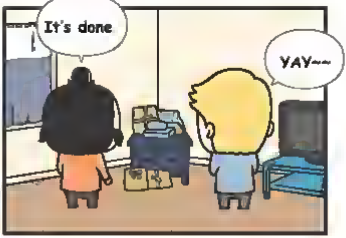
Finally, it is only a few days until Christmas.

We were ready to wrap our presents

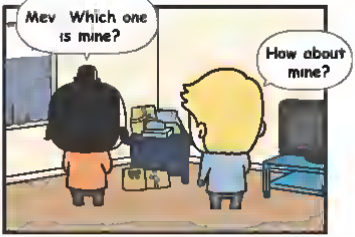
I'll wrap here, you go to the lounge.

Eh? Do you have any more presents for me?

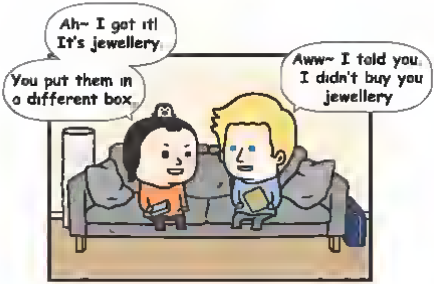




After we finished wrapping the presents, we put them all in one place.

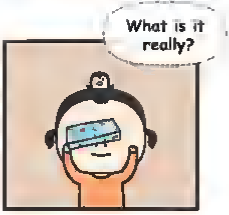


We couldn't help ourselves from touching the presents and guessing what they were.



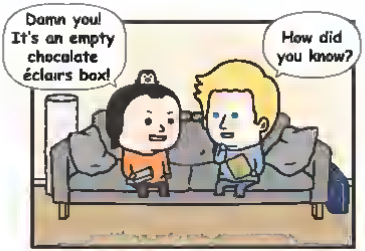
Gee! I gave you so many hints that I want jewellery!!!

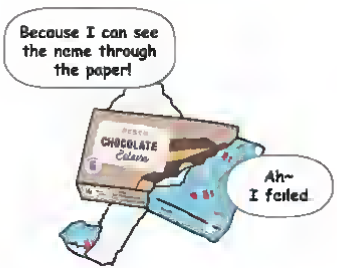
He I bet he bought something that I like anyway



What is it really?

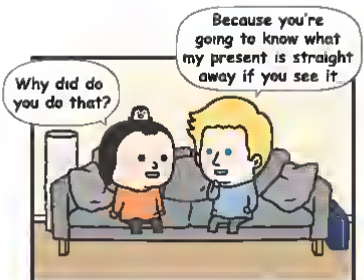
!!!!

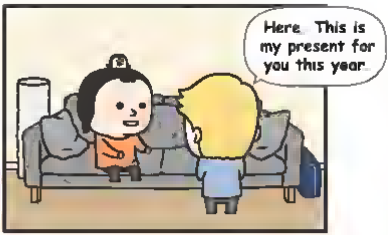




I found out that my present from Mev was an empty chocolate éclairs box that we'd finished off the night before.

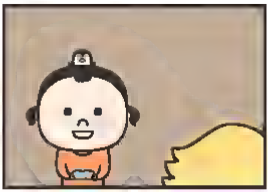
I didn't know that you would guess this fast

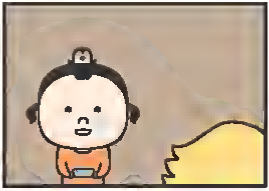




Finally, Mev brought his real present for me.

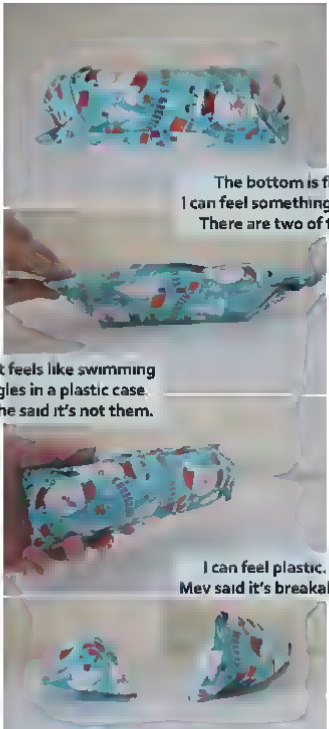
But...





You said
I'd know straight away
Are you joking?

Can you guess
what it is?



The bottom is flat.
I can feel something round
There are two of them.
It just feels like swimming
goggles in a plastic case.
But he said it's not them.
I can feel plastic.
Mev said it's breakable.

The answer is on my Vlog channel.
